

Hello,

Have you heard of CoedNet? Its a directory of Sustainable Woodland enterprises and businesses in Wales, hosted by Llais y Goedwig, we list everyone from green wood workers, carpenters, forest school practitioners, foragers, tree surgeons and more! If you think your business or enterprise would benefit from being part of this directory, then fill in the attached form, and we will add you. You can join for free for a standard listing, or you can opt for a paid premium listing that highlights your listing and puts your business higher in search results.
